Players qualify via last longer bet seats awarded and or hours of cash played at Windy City Poker during promotion period. Non cash players or last longer bet winners must enter for a full stack for a full price of $375+$15 for 35k in chips. James Golding & Danny Millender both have a $350 seat via last longer bets won and have set the bar for the largest stack. The rest of the players get their stack with a ratio of $10 per 1,000 chips. They have the option to pay out of pocket to “chip up” to the max stack. They can pay out of pocket any amount they prefer but no more than the max stack. Below is the list of players and their optional “chip up”. The remaining prize pool will be accumulated by the $1 promo collected during cash games. Approx $800-$900 will be collected from those games. The players who play cash are then eligible based on each hour they have participated in equaling chips. For example a player who participated in 30 hours @ $1.50 per hour value would start with a $45 stack or 4,500 in chips for free and have the option to pay out of pocket for additional chips at a ratio of $10 per every 1,000 extra. As long as they played 1 hour they are eligible to “chip up”. Players who have less than a 20k starting stack are not eligible for the $30 add on end of entry period. You must start with no less than 20,000 in chips for the optional end of entry add-on of $30 for 30,000 chips. The prize pool is guaranteed to give away 1 ($3,000) seat. It is NOT transferable. If you do win the seat and have entries into the $350 qualifiers. You can sell or transfer your seat but must do so to a NEW player who does not already have a seat.

There will be re-buys allowed in this event as well as at a discount of $100+$15 opt bonus for the same stack you started the tournament with. Players who want to do the optional add on end of the entry must have done a "chip up" of no less than $100 towards their starting stack or on top of their potential re-buy.

Blinds start off at 20 minutes first 8 levels then go 15 minutes after that. If any additional funds above the $3,000 are in the pot then players will win additional tournament seats either for a $200 deep stack on March 4th or a $350 qualifier on Feb 25th. Will be determined by the tournament director.

Players may not sell or transfer their below starting stacks or hours to other players. If they choose to not participate then their funds will be allocated to the prize pool to help award the $3,000 seat with 20% of their funds held for host charity. If everyone participates then 0% will be held for host charity and any rake would be accumulated through the "chip ups" or re-buys or add-on's. If a player can not make it for valid reasons (i.e. hospital, death in family, work trip, wedding trip already scheduled etc) they must use the funds for the Feb 24th $350 event or lose the funds.
